SIR RUPERT.

This celebrated stallion was bred by John Todd, Tinswald Shaws, Dumfries, Scotland, and was imported to this country in September 1881, the property of Collin Bros., Speakers, Mich.

SIR RUPERT will stand for mares during the season of 1889, health and weather permitting, at the following places:

MONDAY, will leave his own stable and proceed to Hoyt Freeman's, Fremont, for noon; thence to Wm. Black's, Greenwood, for night.

TUESDAY, proceed to Benj. Bowman's, Brockway Centre, noon; thence to Simeon Willey's, for night.

WEDNESDAY, proceed to Peter McNulty's, Fremont, for noon; thence to Jas. Arnold's, Baid, for night.

THURSDAY, proceed to Alfred Collins', Baid, for noon; thence to Con Fox's, Elk, for night.

FRIDAY, proceed to Arch Crawford's, Siles, for noon; thence to Frank Sniffeld's, Speaker, for night.

SAUNDAY, proceed to — for noon; thence to his own stable where he will remain until the following Monday.

DESCRIPTION.
SIR RUPERT is a rich brown color with four white feet and white face, well proportioned, wide chest, good constitution, stands on short strong legs, and has superior action for a draft horse. He was foaled May 15th, 1885, and when a suckling colt won the $125 premium for the best colt. He took first prize at the Fall Fair at Brockway Centre in 1886, and in 1887 took first prize at same place. In 1888 he was awarded first prize at the spring show Brockway Centre, in the fall of same year was awarded first prize at Grosell, first at Kummel, and first at Brockway Centre. He is a promising horse and has been awarded first prize wherever shown.

FEEDING.
SIR RUPERT was sired by Sir Wyndham (1700) who took first prize at Inverness in 1883, by Prince of Wales (7th) winner of second prize at the H. & A. S. show at Glasgow in 1867; 1st at the H. & A. S. show at Edinburgh in 1869; 2d at the H. & A. S. show at Dumfries in 1870; 1st at the H. & A. S. show at Kelso in 1872, and 1st at the Royal Agricultural Society's show at Manchester in 1869, and was sold when 18 years old for $245. In August 1888 one of his get, Prince of Alden (1878), sold for $2500, the highest price ever paid for a Clydesdale. Dam by Old Chance (1878), a dam by Old Tom (1864), a dam by Garbald (1872).

TERMS.—To insure a foal, $12, to be paid on February 1st, 1890. Parties trying mares need not returning them regularly to the horse will be charged as season mares whether in foal or not. Parties desiring of their mares before foaling time must pay insurance whether in foal or not.

Mr. Brown, of Kenosha, has opened a meat market at Brockway.

Columbus farmers are having trouble with dogs killing off numbers of their sheep.

D. M. Church, of the Commercial House, Marine City, has been very sick recently.

A party of Port Huron lawyers have been spending the week at Hammond's Bay, fishing.

Rev. W. P. Kane, of Lafayette, Ind., is spending his summer vacation in Port Huron.

E. F. Percival will furnish the Port Huron customs house with supplies the coming year.

Berville's Patrons of Industry intend holding an ice cream social Friday evening, the 16th.

S. S. Hopkins, formerly of the St. Clair Republic, has deserted journalism for the ministry.

Geo. M. Fair, the Blaine grain man, is making extensive repairs on his grain shed at that place.

Miss Thornton, of Canada, now has charge of the Western Union Telegraph office at Port Gratiot.

W. P. Edison, of Kimball, is entertaining the two sons of Thos. A. Edison, the famous inventor.

J. M. White, Port Huron's famous photographer, intends building a handsome art gallery soon.

The Port Huron fair is to be held on October 1, 2, 3 and 4. The necessary buildings are in course of erection.

The Wolverine base ball club of Port Huron were defeated by the Croswell boys last Saturday. Score 14 to 11.

D. J. Stephenson's store at Pt. Huron was robbed of over $40 one night last week, besides several boxes of cigars.

An expression taken recently at Smith for a choice of preachers resulted in the selection of Rev. Wm. H. Flint.

Fletcher Forester, of Port Huron, was paid $10 by the council for injuries in being kicked by a horse of the fire department.

A lawn fete held at the residence of Judge Mitchell, in Port Huron, recently, netted the building fund of Grace church about $50.

A disorderly house in Port Huron, was raided by the police the other night and two men and two women arrested and jailed.

A barn belonging to H. McArthur, of Port Huron, was burned last Wednesday and Wm. Johnston's house damaged $1,000 worth.

An "Indian Doctor" has been taking in the foolish people of Marine City, with nickel plate watches. 60 people got bit in one evening.

The proposed fair at Port Huron is now an assured fact, the directors of the agricultural association having unanimously agreed to hold one during the first week in October.

A thirteen year old girl living in Marine City, named Lillie Worden, set her clothing on fire while lighting an oil stove. Her hair and clothing were badly burned, but she escaped injury otherwise.

The closing scene of the somewhat noted Withersell divorce suit, will probably occur in Port Huron during next term of court, although it was thought that the argument would be made at Mt. Clemens.

It has been proposed to extend Port Huron's electric railway along Water street, Lapeer Avenue, Tenth and Military street, but people living on Lapeer Avenue are kicking against it as the street has just been paved and they don't want to see it all torn up again.

Congressman Whiting is a member of the Ward Lumber Company recently organized to operate a lumbering business on a 10,000 acre tract of hardwood timber land in Missouri, which contains 150 million feet of lumber. Mr. Whiting is vice-president of the company which has a capital stock of $250,000.

A accident occurred at Marine City last week Wednesday in the drowning of a young man by the name of August J. Breuer. He was in a small boat in tow of a steam barge, when the boat stopped at the dock, Breuer, in attempting to go on ahead went too near and was struck by the exhaust from the engine which knocked him overboard and he sank immediately. He was 23 years of age.

Sheriff Mann gives the following figures in his annual report for the year ending June 30: 723 prisoners were in the county jail, an average of four days for each; 20 women were in the list; 59 of the persons convicted during the year were sent to the Detroit house of correction; the total cost for maintaining the jail was $2,290.10; the traveling expenses for taking persons to jail was $400, and that for taking convicts to prison was $643. The sheriff could have given another item of value had he kept an account of how largely liquor figured in the causes which brought about the filling of his jail from time to time. The report doesn't mention the sudden taking off of Martin as one of the stirring events of the year.
